Artist Statement

Born in 1997 in Taipei, Taiwan, Lin received his Master of Fine Arts from Taipei National University of the Arts. His work focuses on the concepts of “boundary” and “ambiguity,” drawing inspiration from everyday phenomena and ordinary objects. Through diverse methods and materials, he explores the nature and conditions of art.

Recent solo exhibitions include Orogeny Art Space, Frontier, and Hsinchu City Art Site of Railway Warehouse. Selected group exhibitions have been held at WMM Art Space, Mizuiro Workshop, Zit-Dim Art Space, and National Taiwan Museum of Fine Arts.

His work has received various recognitions, including selection for the Taiwan Emerging Art Awards, the First Prize of Next Art Tainan, selection for the National Art Exhibition R.O.C., the Second Prize of the Contemporary Sculpture Lih Pao Prize, and the Second Prize of the NKUST Young Artist Collections Open Call.
